Brief note

Seminar

A college level on 'Women's Empowerment' was arranged by Seminar cell of IQAC. The Seminar was chaired by Prof. J. Sutana, Associate Prof. Department of Education. Participating as resource person Dr. M. Parbin, Assistant Professor of Assamese Department explained the role of women in transforming the society. She said that a society can not grow without the help of women. Education and awareness play a pivotal role in this respect. Another resource person Prof. A. Devi from Sanskrit Department outlined the theme of Women Empowerment. She urged the need of building the women's capacity through training and non formal education so that they become able to access and understand the root cause of both social and financial inequality in society. This would facilitate the women to achieve self-reliance and sustainability. Students should work hard from the very beginning of their course. The vote of thanks was given by Dr. N. Jima.
